

NUMBER LXV. A DIET FOR MENTAL DYSPEPSIA, AND A CURE FOR HYPOCHONDRIA, HYPOCHRY, OR ANY COMPLAINT OF A HY ORDER.

BY OUR SERIES EDITOR. ALMANAC AND DIARY. SHORT METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS FOR THE WEEK.

Monday, 23.—Chenaw Braves visit their "great father" at Washington to learn more of his policy, with a view to investing in it. The father explained, and showed the advantages of reconstruction. The chief replied, "Go father and fare worse."

Tuesday, 24.—Termination of the great Fenian War. General Meade allows O'Hanlon, Sweeney, Kilian & Co. to withdraw from the concern, previous to the day of sailing out.

Wednesday, 25.—Superintendents of the various insane Asylums gather around the White House, each advocating the merits of their own institutions in reference to the treatment of patients.

Thursday, 26.—Tennessee Legislature extra a number because "he took his hat and cane and left the House without a quorum." This was a case of a rat in the house as the member did not know where to get out.

Friday, 27.—General Grant's reception at Richmond, Va. The "First Fruit" of Virginia, tried to make him out but the General proved a match for them, and in his cigar with him. The whole thing ended in smoke.

Saturday, 28.—Se. Soc. Column Day. The Editor expects a visit from the Superintendent of Insane Asylums, now on their way to this city, in view of the new Reconstruction which he hopes will satisfy the superintendents.

THE NEW TARIFF BILL.

The bill to amend the Internal Revenue act, as reported to us, provides as follows:—Distillers shall pay a tax of $100, instead of $50. This additional sum allows the additional privileges for their liquors or cures to be

Distillers of apples, sour grapes, and acorns, of not more than 150 barrels of pure brandy therefrom per annum, to pay but $50; but not to be drunk on the premises. "The old act, with all its faults, I love its still," was the toast in the Committee when they finished their labors. Brewers of malt liquors, consequently of mischief, are to pay $100, drunk or not. Any person who peddles jewelry, such as China dogs, or dolls, or plaster Paris horses, in exchange for is to pay a license fee of $10, if wearing no more than three hats at a time; or that $5 per hat. Builders and contractors $10, instead of $25, except in the case of Bridges and Court Houses, when the license, is to be 50 cents a year, to be paid by the contractor during his life, and after his decease by his executors, annually, until such Bridge or Court House is finished. Spirits, refined, 20 cents a gallon. If the spirits should be found in a gall, like that one reported by the Inquirer reporter, down Fifth street, last winter, they will be classed as unrectified spirits, and the reporter will be called upon to rectify his statements, if not the spirits, and the tax will be but 10 cts. a gall.

shall be exempt in the case of American production; the article of shall pay a tax of 10 cents per curl, or when made into a waterfall, $1-00 per fall, Hoop Skirts to be free. The above are the principal features of the Bill, so far as the Committee have reported to us through our special reporters.

Latest from Washington.

[FROM THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.] A Convention of Superintendents of Insane Asylums had an interview with the President yesterday.

We understand the interview was short, and politics was not mentioned, and as the President did not make a speech the Convention could learn nothing in their line.

Foreign Intelligence. The steamship Nona Scotian arrived at Port land this morning, with advices ten days later. They were probably intended for the Fenians, but as they refuse advice from us, it is not probable they would take it from a Nona Scotian. On account of Spain being in the condition of a "sick man" just now, her doctors have recommended Peruvian Bark, and at the sailing of the steamer she had captured three on the South American coast. It is reckoned a foolish thing in diplomatic circles, and was denounced as it being a coastwise vessel or captain that made the capture.

Affairs between Austria and Prussia are without change. There is a report that to supply the necessary change they intend issuing a bill of postal currency. Several eminent business men have already submitted propositions to have their portraits engraved upon it, or a view "before and after taking it."

The Schleswig-Holstein question is settled, so the telegraph reports say, into a regular quarrel. The debate on the Reform bill commenced in the House of Commons last night, the object is presumed to be to get 5 per cent. taken off the bill for each, but as none of the members knew the exact amount of the bill, they came to no conclusion.

Mr. Gladstone moved the bill, and put it on the passage. It is feared that some of the members coming into the House of a dark day may not see it, and stumble over it. They have stumbled over several previous bills already.

There is quite a panic in the Stock Exchange. Shares of a majority of the companies have been held by weak holders, consequently have had a fall. An eminent hardware firm of Birmingham offered to furnish two thousand holders of "chilled steel" for the use of the Exchange, including clamps, at a low figure.

Cotton has experienced a decline. Even the young ladies in the boarding schools had to "decline" it. From Paris it is reported that the French Emperor will recall the 5000 French troops from Mexico by July 1, 1867, and, in the meantime, have their places supplied by 10,000 Austrians. Secretary Seward's circular on the Monroe doctrine has no doubt influenced Napoleon in this direction.

The markets are glutted. The City Commissioners have been appealed to, to introduce a hose and wash them out.

"No Bills of Lading."

Although the following advertisement would seem to have had a good share of publicity, having been published in the "married department" of last Wednesday's Public Ledger, we could not let such an important announcement go unheralded in the widely circulated columns of THE EVENING TELEGRAPH, and more especially (as will appear from the advertisement), as the time is short for the public to avail themselves of the benefit of it—

MARRIED. JEANJOAN-PARRY. On the 23d inst., at the residence of the bride's father, Paradise Hall, Montgomery county, by Justice Fairlee, U. JEANJOAN to EMILY D. PARRY. Presents received until the 20th inst.

Will the "Supper Scene" in Paradise, as portrayed in the Miltonian Tableaux at Concert Hall, present any comparison to "Paradise Hall" about supper time on the 20th inst.? Not if we can help it. When a steamer leaves port they generally advertise the last day on which freight will be received; therefore shippers will take notice. JEANJOAN, like a good business man, does the like, but with this exception—the former craft generally advertises the exact location of its starting point, this latter merely says "Paradise Hall." Now that might be a long haul to reach. Are the goods to be delivered at Fifth and Green, at the Norristown Railroad, or at the Reading Railroad depot? Time is short, and to find anything like Paradise in Montgomery county, according to our experience of that county, one ought to have very definite directions.

PARADISE LOST, FOR TWO WEEKS, commencing Monday, April 23. This must astonish somebody; but how cheering that only for two weeks will the loss continue! The man that finds it ought to be well rewarded by the authorities.

BURSTENBINDER is the name of the man who sent the Nitro-Glycerine to San Francisco. Bind-the-burster over, say we, to answer at Court.

THE HARRISON BOILER.

A SAFE STEAM BOILER.

The attention of manufacturers and others using Steam is confidently called to this new Steam generator, as combining every advantage in absolute safety, in economy, in cheapness of first cost and cost of repairs, in economy of fuel, facility of cleaning and transportation, etc. This boiler is formed of a combination of cast-iron hollow spheres each sphere eight inches external diameter, and three eighths of an inch thick. These are held together by wrought-iron bolts, with caps at the ends. Nearly one hundred of these Boilers are now in operation, some of them in the best establishments in this city.

For descriptive circulars or price, apply to JOSEPH HARRISON, Jr., Harrison Boiler Works, GRAY'S FERRY Road, adjoining the United States Arsenal, Philadelphia.
